

City of Marfa Shelter-In-Place

Begins 3/27/2020 at 11:59 p.m.

Ends 4/10/2020 at 11:59 p.m.

What activities are OK?

Personal Activities

- Getting groceries, household supplies, medicine and gas
- Going to the doctor's office
- Outdoor activities (hiking, biking, running, etc.) while maintaining social distance requirements)

Essential Work Services

- Healthcare workers
- Public infrastructure operations (sewer, gas, construction, oil and gas work, telecommunications support)
- Transportation and transportation repairs
- Government functions (first responders, emergency management personnel, judges and court personnel, law enforcement)
- School personnel (and families leaving home to get school work and meals)
- Other individuals deemed necessary by the mayor
- Businesses that provide food, shelter, and social services
- Newspaper, television and radio services
- Gas stations and auto-related facilities
- Banks and financial institutions
- Hardware stores, plumbers, electricians, HVAC techs, landscapers
- Mailing and shipping services
- Laundromats, dry cleaners and laundry services
- Carry-out and delivery restaurants (must close by 10:00 p.m.)
- Airlines, taxis and private transportation
- Legal and accounting services
- Home-based care
- Funeral homes
- Childcare facilities that enable essential employees to work

Essential Travel

- Anything related to essential personal, healthcare, business or government functions (listed above)
- Travel to care for elderly, minors, dependents, disabled or vulnerable persons
- Travel to and from educational institutes for materials or meals
- Travel to residence
- Travel required by law enforcement or court order

For any questions, call City Manager John Washburn at 432.295.0068 or Chief of Police Steve Marquez at 432.295.2613